I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in its biennial resolution 54/43 of 1 December 1999, inter alia, called upon all Member States to report to the Secretary-General, annually, by 30 April, their military expenditures for the latest fiscal year for which data are available, using, preferably and to the extent possible, the reporting instrument as recommended in its resolution 35/142 B of 12 December 1980 or, as appropriate, any other format developed in conjunction with similar reporting on military expenditures to other international or regional organizations.

2. By paragraph 6 (b) of resolution 54/43, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to promote international and regional symposia and training seminars to explain the purpose of the United Nations system for the standardized reporting of military expenditures and to give relevant technical instructions.

3. By paragraph 9 of the same resolution, the General Assembly called upon all Member States to provide the Secretary-General with their views on the analysis and the recommendations contained in his report (A/54/298) and with further suggestions to strengthen and broaden participation in the United Nations system for the standardized reporting of military expenditures, including necessary changes to its content and structure.

II. Actions taken by the Secretariat

4. On 22 February 2001, the Secretary-General sent a note verbale to Member States requesting them to submit their reports no later than 30 April 2000. The replies received are reproduced in chapter III below. Any additional replies received from Member States will be issued as addenda to the present report.

5. In his note verbale, the Secretary-General also requested Member States to communicate their views and suggestions pursuant to paragraph 9 of General Assembly resolution 54/43. To date, the Secretary-General has received the common reply submitted by Sweden on behalf of the European Union. Any further replies will be issued as an addendum to the present report.

6. Pursuant to paragraph 6 (b) of resolution 54/43, and within existing resources, the Department for Disarmament Affairs organized an informal meeting of delegates on 10 October 2000 at United Nations Headquarters with a view to enhancing greater familiarity with and encouraging wider participation in the standardized instrument for reporting military expenditures. At this meeting, presentations on the reporting instrument were made by the representatives of Argentina, Chile, Germany and Romania as well as an official of the Department for Disarmament Affairs.

7. The Department for Disarmament Affairs also facilitated and participated in a meeting of the Committee on Hemispheric Security of the Organization of American States (OAS), held at OAS headquarters in Washington, D.C. on 4 May 2001, which was devoted to arms transparency issues at the regional level. The Department for Disarmament Affairs, inter alia, made a presentation on the United Nations standardized instrument for reporting military expenditures and also provided data regarding global and regional participation in this instrument.

III. Replies received from Governments

Explanatory note

8. To date, the Secretary-General has received reports from 55 Governments. Figures in the tables presented below have been reported by Governments, in most cases on the basis of the standardized instrument for international reporting of military expenditures. For analytical purposes, the information on military expenditures received has been computerized, with minor adjustments, to conform to standard statistical practices. In cases where reporting Governments using the standardized reporting instrument have not entered data, those columns have not been reproduced in the present report.

9. The originals of the replies from States are available through the Department for Disarmament Affairs at Headquarters.

Explanatory note on the presentation of the French military budget

The figures provided concern the French military budget for 2001, excluding pensions, using a unit of currency and nomenclature requested by the United Nations. The following comments are in order:

(a) The "strategic forces" heading covers allocations for nuclear deterrence;

(b) The budget for the gendarmerie was covered under the heading of "paramilitary forces";

(c) The "military assistance" and "civil defence" headings are not applicable: the former, because the elements needed are not provided in unclassified budget documents, while the latter does not come under the Ministry of Defence;

(d) Two types of figures are required to respond to part II of the United Nations questionnaire:

- Questions 1, 2 and 3 concern the average civilian salary for the fiscal year under review, military assistance from abroad, the exhaustion of stocks of ammunition as well as sales of land, property, equipment or services. These figures are not available.

- Questions 4 and 5 concern imports and exports of military equipment as well as the proposed methods for comparing French military expenditures with those of other countries. This information is classified.

Budgetary information

With a view to reducing the fiscal deficit, the General State Budgetary Act for 2001 pursues the austerity policy followed by the Government in 2000. The attainment of the fiscal deficit target fixed by the State authorities in the Budgetary Stability Programme, together with requirements related to the professionalization of the armed forces, entails a major budgetary effort by the Ministry of Defence for the financial year 2001.

In this context, the budgets include a resource allocation of 1,008,831 million pesetas for the Ministry of Defence, 4.5 per cent higher than the 2000 figure. An additional amount of 35,667 million pesetas has been approved for the Infrastructure and Equipment Department of the Ministry of Defence.

Expressed as a percentage of gross domestic product (GDP), the budget for 2001 has been reduced to 0.95 per cent compared to 0.97 per cent in 2000.

The budget for autonomous organizations attached to the Ministry of Defence amounts to 173,194 million pesetas. If this is included, the budget for the Ministry stands at 1,169,173 million pesetas, or 1.1 per cent of GDP.

The budget for 2001 remains at 4.88 per cent of the overall State budget.

The percentage distribution of the budget is as follows:

Central administration:	25.3 per cent
Land forces:	39.2 per cent
Naval forces:	17.2 per cent
Air forces:	16.6 per cent
Central command:	1.7 per cent

The breakdown of expenditure for fiscal 2000 and the defence budget for 2001 are annexed to this document.

Views received from Governments in accordance with paragraph 9 of General Assembly resolution 54/43

Sweden (on behalf of the European Union)

[Original: English]
[27 April 2001]

Common reply by the European Union to General Assembly resolution 54/43, "Objective information on military matters, including transparency of military expenditures"

At the fifty-fourth session of the General Assembly, the Member States of the European Union supported the consensus on resolution 54/43 entitled "Objective information on military matters, including transparency of military expenditures". The European Union wishes to provide the following common reply to paragraph 9 of the resolution, which calls upon Member States to provide the Secretary-General with their views on the analysis and recommendations contained in his report (A/54/298) and with further suggestions to strengthen and broaden participation in the United Nations system for standardized reporting of military expenditures, including necessary changes in its content and structure.

The Central and Eastern European countries associated with the European Union, the associated countries Cyprus, Malta and Turkey and the European Free Trade Association countries members of the European Economic Area align themselves with the following common reply of the Member States of the European Union to resolution 54/43.

1. The European Union continues to attach high importance to the United Nations standardized reporting of military expenditures, as instituted through the adoption of resolution 35/142 B. Annual reporting on military expenditures under the United Nations standardized reporting instruments complements the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms as instituted by General Assembly resolution 46/36 and is thus an additional important and concrete measure to enhance transparency in armaments and contribute to confidence-building and security among States.

2. The European Union encourages all countries, in particular those which have co-sponsored resolution 54/43, to submit information on their military expenditures for the last fiscal year under the standardized reporting system to the Secretary-General by 30 April 2001. In case a country has no information to provide, the European Union would encourage submission of a nil return. The European Union considers that nil returns also are an important contribution to enhancing transparency in the field of armaments.

3. Since its introduction in 1980, the resolution "Objective information on military matters, including transparency of military expenditures" has been enjoying growing acceptance by States Members of the United Nations as witnessed by an increasing number of co-sponsors (47 in 1998, 54 in 1999) and its adoption by consensus. However, participation in the standardized reporting remains low. In 2000, reports were obtained from 35 Member States only. In our view, such a low participation is a cause for concern and indicates that the request to report military expenditures continues to meet, in particular, practical obstacles.

4. The European Union believes that further efforts should be undertaken to elucidate the reasons for the limited response by Member States and to take appropriate action to facilitate wider participation in the United Nations system for the standardized reporting of military expenditures. The European Union, therefore, fully supports the requests made to the Secretary-General in paragraphs 6, 7 and 8 of resolution 54/53 to this effect, in particular to examine possibilities for enhancing complementarity among international and regional reporting systems, and to exchange related information with these bodies.

5. Furthermore, States Members of the United Nations should be urged to inform about possible problems with the reporting and their reasons for not submitting the required data, and to submit suggestions, so that appropriate improvements could be considered to render this instrument more effective and to strengthen and broaden participation in the United Nations system for the standardized reporting of military expenditures.

6. The European Union welcomes the initiative by the Department for Disarmament Affairs to organize, in 2001 and 2002, regional seminars with a view to explaining the purpose and importance of the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms and the United Nations standardized reporting system on military expenditures, and to provide technical advice for countries which lack the capacity to fill in the United Nations matrix at the required level of disaggregation or need to adjust their information to the United Nations categories.
